Report on Analytical Skill Development Programme

Topic: Application of Critical Thinking in patient care

Date: 4th May 2024

Time: 9:00 AM to 10:00 AM

Platform: Online

Resource Person: Dr. Asha Raj S

An Analytical Skill Development Programme was conducted on the 4th of May, 2024, focusing on the topic of "Application of Critical Thinking in patient care." The session was led by Dr. Asha Raj S, an Associate Professor at Amala College of Nursing, Thrissur. The event was conducted online and was attended by nursing students who are keen on enhancing their critical thinking abilities.

Objectives of the Programme:

1. To provide participants with a comprehensive understanding of what critical thinking entails, including its significance in the nursing profession.
2. To equip participants with the skills necessary to analyze situations critically, make informed decisions, and solve problems effectively in clinical settings.
3. To enhance the decision-making capabilities of the participants by teaching them how to evaluate evidence, consider alternatives, and make sound judgments.

Summary of the Event

The session started with a silent prayer and a Welcome speech delivered by Sr. Dona, Associate Professor of Amala College of Nursing, Thrissur. The session began with an introduction to the concept of critical thinking, where Dr. Asha Raj S elaborated on its importance in nursing. She highlighted how critical thinking is essential for patient care, particularly in assessing patient needs, identifying potential problems, and making timely interventions. With many examples and scenarios, Dr. Asha pointed out what is critical thinking and how it should be used in various situations. About 200 participants including 2nd semester, 5th semester, Fourth Year and other faculties also attended the session.

The Analytical Skill Development Programme was a valuable session that provided nursing professionals and students with essential tools to enhance their critical thinking skills. The session ended by a vote of thanks delivered by Ms. Neethu Benny, 2021 Batch of Amala College of Nursing, Thrissur.
