Objective: The objective of the programme was to delve into the essence of humanity and explore the various dimensions of human values, aiming to enhance the student's understanding and appreciation of their roles as compassionate caregivers in the nursing profession.

Rev. Fr. Sanoj Arangassery commenced the session by elucidating the significance of humanity in the contemporary world. Drawing from his profound knowledge and experience, he navigated through the intricacies of human values, emphasizing empathy, compassion, and altruism as indispensable virtues for healthcare professionals and providing a comprehensive overview of humanity's diverse facets, ranging from interpersonal relationships to global citizenship. The session was marked by active engagement, with students participating eagerly in discussions and posing insightful queries. Rev. Fr. Sanoj Arangassery addressed the students' doubts and concerns, fostering a conducive learning environment. The programme was not only educative but also enjoyable, as students found resonance with the subject matter and appreciated the engaging delivery by the resource person.

The Human Value Development Programme on "Humanity Horizons" at Amala College of Nursing was a resounding success, thanks to the profound insights shared by Rev. Fr. Sanoj Arangassery. The session left an indelible impact on the students, enriching their perspectives and reaffirming their commitment to embodying human values in their professional endeavours. Students extended their heartfelt gratitude to Rev. Fr. Sanoj Arangassery for his invaluable contribution to the programme. We also appreciate the enthusiastic participation of the students, whose active involvement was instrumental in making the event a memorable one.

Report on Human Value Development Program

Topic: Life Values

Date: January 2, 2024

Time: 12:00 PM – 1:00 PM

Venue: Lecture Hall III, Amala College of Nursing

Expert Speaker: Dr. Fr. Benny Benedict Chiramel CMI

The Human Value Development Program, organized by Amala College of Nursing, focused on the theme "Life Values" and was conducted on January 2, 2024. The session was aimed at instilling core human values in nursing students and fostering holistic development.

Dr. Fr. Benny Benedict Chiramel CMI, an esteemed expert in media and performing arts, was invited to deliver a talk on this subject.

Objectives

1. To impart an understanding of fundamental life values relevant to personal and professional growth.
2. To encourage nursing students to incorporate ethical principles and values in their practice.
3. To highlight the significance of human values in healthcare delivery and patient care.
4. To promote a balanced approach to life, integrating personal well-being with professional responsibilities.

5. To develop leadership qualities and a compassionate outlook among nursing students.

Summary of the Program

The session began with a silent prayer, followed by a welcome speech by Prof. Lakshmi G, Amala College of Nursing, Thrissur. Dr. Fr. Benny Benedict emphasized the importance of life values such as empathy, integrity, compassion, and respect in the nursing profession. Through engaging anecdotes and examples, he demonstrated how these values could improve both patient care and interpersonal relationships in healthcare settings. He also provided practical tips on how to integrate these values into daily nursing practice and highlighted the transformative impact of such an approach on patient outcomes.

The program successfully met its objectives of educating nursing students about life values and their application in healthcare. The session concluded with an interactive Q&A session, where students shared their thoughts and sought advice on managing real-world ethical challenges in nursing. About 100 participants attended the event, including students from the 3rd semester and 5th semester. The session concluded with a vote of thanks delivered by Ms. Ayana Baby, a student from the 2021 batch at Amala College of Nursing.
